

What did it really mean?

Can you read between the lines and see the author's intent?

The Wizard of Oz was an allegory for the condition of America in the 1930's following the stock market crash of and factual bankruptcy of the US Government

WIZARD OF OZ™

Kansas was the geographical center of the USA. The Heartland of America.

Then

Came a tornado (stock market crash & whirlwind of confusion that followed) which swept Dorothy & Toto into a new, artificial dimension above the solid ground of Kansas.

After the Bankruptcy, Kansas was no longer Kansas, it was now “KS” (An artificial corporate venue of the Bankrupt United States and newly established “Federal Territory” part of the “Federal Zone”) and operated under the COLOR OF LAW

(thus the change from B&W to Color in the movie)

WIZARD OF OZ™

Now in comes the straw man

The ALL CAPITAL LETTER artificial representation of the American sovereign

WIZARD OF OZ™

The straw man had no brain
(He could not think and act for himself)

“Some people without brains do an awful lot of talking. Of course, I’m not bright about doing things.”

WIZARD OF OZ™

In the song, “If I Only Had a Brain,” the Straw Man stated:

“I’d unravel every riddle, for every individdle, in trouble or in pain”

(Once one discovers his straw man exists, all political and legal mysteries and confusions are resolved)

WIZARD OF OZ™

When you take legal title to the straw man and “give him a brain” (your brain) he can protect himself from legal troubles.

WIZARD OF OZ™

Remember the Tin Man?

Or should we say T-I-N Man?

WIZARD OF OZ™

T-I-N

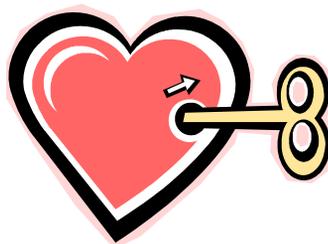

Taxpayer Identification Number

WIZARD OF OZ™

The T-I-N man was a hollow man made of metal, a vessel or vehicle.

Like the Straw Man, the T-I-N man was missing something too...

WIZARD OF OZ™

Both the Straw Man and T-I-N Man were “artificial persons”

One of the definitions of “tin” in Webster’s Dictionary is “counterfeit”.

WIZARD OF OZ™

The T-I-N man also represented the mechanical and heartless aspect of commerce and commercial law.

“Nothing personal – it’s just business”

WIZARD OF OZ™

The T-I-N man carried an Ax.

The Ax is a traditional symbol for God

Interesting facts:

1. The word “ace” is etymologically related to the word “ax”.
2. In a deck of cards the only one above the King is the Ace (i.e. God).
3. The U.S. Tax Court emblem uses an axe.

WIZARD OF OZ™

What about the Lion?

What did he represent?

WIZARD OF OZ™

The “King of Beasts”

The once fearless Americans that had lost their courage

WIZARD OF OZ™

When you think about dealing with the IRS (a UCC-constituted corporation) you probably lose a little courage too.

You may not know it, but the IRS deals with you strictly under the laws of commerce.

And just like the T-I-N man, Commerce is heartless!

PROFESSOR MARVEL

In the beginning of the movie the Wizard was represented by the traveling mystic “Professor Marvel”.

His shingle stated that he was “Acclaimed By The Crowned Heads of Europe – Past, Present and Future.”

WOW! Acclaimed by future rulers of Europe –
BEFORE they were crowned???

(before Bankers stole America, they had already disempowered the monarchies of Europe and looted their kingdoms)

Why Marvel was a “Wizard of Oz”:

Oz=international abbreviation for “Ounce”.

He was a Wizard because he secretly controlled all the ounces of gold in the government’s possession as all gold was being confiscated by law from the American people.

PROFESSOR MARVEL

The Professor lectured Dorothy of the priests of Isis and Osiris and about the time of Egyptian Pharaohs.

Hmmm.....

Sound like Freemasonry influence?

WIZARD OF OZ™

THE SLIPPERS

In the movie Dorothy wore the Ruby Red Slippers.

NOTE: In the original book by L. Frank Baum the slippers were Silver.

At the time the book was written, America still had all its gold and silver. In the story, Dorothy's slippers carried her just as the stockpile of Silver and Gold (which then backed the currency) carried the country to a position of prominence.

WIZARD OF OZ™

Follow the Yellow Brick Road...

Means...

Follow the trail of STOLEN Gold

Between 1916 and 1933 most of America's gold was hoarded by the PRIVATE Federal Reserve Bank and shipped to Fed owners in England and Germany.

The reason was that Federal Reserve Notes could be redeemed in gold and the use of Federal Reserve Notes (FRN's) carried an interest penalty that could only be paid in gold.

When Bankruptcy was declared in 1933, Americans were required to turn in all gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificated by May 1st.

- Celebrated worldwide as the “International Workers Holiday”

A HOLY DAY INDEED TO THE “WIZARD” AND HIS TRIBE

Under the doctrine of The Emergency War Power Act of 1917 President of the United States Franklin Delano Roosevelt yanked the security of gold from the American people. A state of National Emergency was declared to exist. The following is the Executive Order of 5 April, 1933.

From: President of the United States Franklin Delano Roosevelt

To: The United States Congress

Dated: 5 April, 1933

Presidential Executive Order 6102

Forbidding the Hoarding of Gold Coin, Gold Bullion and Gold Certificates

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Section 5(b) of the Act of October 6, 1917, as amended by Section 2 of the Act of March 9, 1933, entitled

An Act to provide relief in the existing national emergency in banking, and for other purposes~', in which amendatory Act Congress declared that a serious emergency exists,

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do declare that said national emergency still continues to exist and pursuant to said section to do hereby prohibit the hoarding gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates within the continental United States by individuals, partnerships, associations and corporations and hereby prescribe the following regulations for carrying out the purposes of the order:

Section 1. For the purpose of this regulation, the term "hoarding" means the withdrawal and withholding of gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates from the recognized and customary channels of trade. The term "person" means any individual, partnership, association or corporation.

Section 2. All persons are hereby required to deliver on or before May 1, 1933, to a Federal Reserve bank or a branch or agency thereof or to any member bank of the Federal Reserve System all gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates now owned by them or coming into their ownership on or before April 28, 1933, except the following:

(a) Such amount of gold as may be required for legitimate and customary use in industry, profession or art within a reasonable time, including gold prior to refining and stocks of gold in reasonable amounts for the usual trade requirements of owners mining and refining such gold.

(b) Gold coin and gold certificates in an amount not exceeding in the aggregate $100.00 belonging to any one person; and gold coins having recognized special value to collectors of rare and unusual coins.

(c) Gold coin and bullion earmarked or held in trust for a recognized foreign government or foreign central bank or the Bank for International Settlements.

(d) Gold coin and bullion licensed for the other proper transactions (not involving hoarding) including gold coin and gold bullion imported for the re-export or held pending action on applications for export license.

Section 3. Until otherwise ordered any person becoming the owner of any gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates after April 28, 1933, shall within three days after receipt thereof, deliver the same in the manner prescribed in Section 2; unless such gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates are held for any of the purposes specified in paragraphs (a),(b) or (c) of Section 2; or unless such gold coin, gold bullion is held for purposes specified in paragraph (d) of Section 2 and the person holding it is, with respect to such gold coin or bullion, a licensee or applicant for license pending action thereon.

Section 4. Upon receipt of gold coin, gold bullion, or gold certificates delivered to it in accordance with Section 2 or 3, the Federal reserve bank or member bank will pay thereof an equivalent amount of any other form of coin or currency coined or issued under the laws of the United States.

Section 5. Member banks shall deliver all gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates owned or received by them (other than as exempted under the provisions of Section 2) to the Federal reserve banks of their respective districts and receive credit or payment thereof.

Section 6. The Secretary of the Treasury, out of the sum made available to the President by Section 501 of the Act of March 9, 1933, will in all proper cases pay the reasonable costs of transportation of gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates delivered to a member bank or Federal reserve bank in accordance with Sections 2, 3, or 5 hereof, including the cost of insurance, protection, and such other incidental costs as may be necessary, upon production of satisfactory evidence of such costs. Voucher forms for this purpose may be procured from Federal reserve banks.

Section 7. In cases where the delivery of gold coin, gold bullion, or gold certificates by the owners thereof within the time set forth above will involve extraordinary hardship or difficulty, the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, extend the time within which such delivery must be made. Applications for such extensions must be made in writing under oath; addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury and filed with a Federal reserve bank. Each applications must state the date to which the extension is desired, the amount and location of the gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates in respect of which such application is made and the facts showing extension to be necessary to avoid extraordinary hardship or difficulty.

Section 8. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and empowered to issue such further regulations as he may deem necessary to carry the purposes of this order and to issue licenses there under, through such officers or agencies as he may designate, including licenses permitting the Federal reserve banks and member banks of the Federal Reserve System, in return for an equivalent amount of other coin, currency or credit, to deliver, earmark or hold in trust gold coin or bullion to or for persons showing the need for same for any of the purposes specified in paragraphs (a), (c), and (d) of Section 2 of these regulations.

Section 9. Whoever willfully violates any provision of this Executive Order or these regulation or of any rule, regulation or license issued there under may be fined not more than $10,000, or, if a natural person may be imprisoned for not more than ten years or both; and any officer, director, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in any such violation may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both. This order and these regulations may be modified or revoked at any time.

Franklin D. Roosevelt
President of the United States of America
April 5, 1933

June 5th, 1933

HJR 192

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 192

"Whereas the holding or dealing in gold affect the public interest, and are therefore subject to proper regulation and restriction; and whereas the existing emergency has disclosed that provisions or obligations which purport to give the obligee a right to require payment in gold or a particular kind of coin or currency...are inconsistent with the declared policy of Congress in the payment of debts" and that payment in gold or a particular kind of coin or currency, or in an amount in money of the United States measured thereby , is declared to be against public policy, and..Every obligation heretofore or hereafter incurred shall be discharged upon payment, dollar for dollar, in any coin or currency which at the time of payment is legal tender for public and private debts."

Our government struck a deal which traded our GOLD for FRN's (worthless paper with green ink on it.)

Our previous currency, United States Notes, carried no such interest requirement.

(And the Public Fool System teaches how foolish the Native American's were when they traded their land for colored beads)

I guess what they say is true, History unlearned is destined to repeat itself.

WIZARD OF OZ™

THE WICKED WITCH OF THE WEST

She wanted those Slippers

(Just as the European Bankers wanted Americas Silver and Gold Supply)

WIZARD OF OZ™

THE WICKED WITCH OF THE WEST

HER PLAN

Cover the countryside with Poppy Flowers
("Poppies" are the source of Heroin, Opium and Morphine) symbolically drugging them into unconsciousness so she can just waltz in and steal them.

The best way to subjugate the American people and steal their gold was to dull the senses by getting them hooked on Drugs.

WIZARD OF OZ™

THE WICKED WITCH OF THE WEST

The Poppies (Drugs) worked on Dorothy, the Lion and Toto (the Flesh-and-Blood), but had no effect on the Scarecrow and the T-I-N man (the artificial).

The two of them cried out for help...

WIZARD OF OZ™

Glenda (the Good Witch) answered their prayers with a blanket of snow (i.e. cocaine, a stimulant)

Which nullified the narcotic effect of the poppies on them.

At this time, apart from Marijuana, Heroin and Cocaine (in their various forms) are the most available drugs in America.
